Hello,

Thank you for the opportunity to present your company with the attached proposal for pre-employment background screening. Should you choose us as your background screening provider, you will find that our commitment to you is second to none. Helping to protect your business is our number one goal.

IC utilizes advanced software coupled with unmatched customer service to provide their clients with a superior product. We take an investigative approach to background screening that uncovers records that are not found with traditional searches. We have established research protocols specifically designed to ensure accuracy, save our client's money and produce faster turnaround times.

Should you have any questions feel free to contact me anytime. We look forward to working with you in the future.

Warmest Regards,

Scott Good

President
