Additional information about yourself that you believe would be helpful in appraising your qualifications for the position for which you are applying:

In addition to my professional experience in health promotion, event planning, and community engagement, my background also includes leading internal and external communications, managing social media campaigns, and producing engaging content that informs, inspires, and builds trust. I've worked closely with community partners, educational institutions, and internal departments to craft messaging that resonates — skills I believe align well with the mission and communication needs at Mid-America Technology Center.

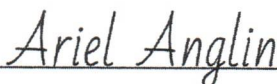

I also bring a unique blend of leadership and adaptability, having served as Rotary Club President while balancing large-scale wellness initiatives and collaborative projects with public organizations. My attention to detail, initiative, and ability to manage multiple projects would be valuable assets in this role.

Finally, I have a strong appreciation for CareerTech education and its role in shaping opportunity and economic growth in Oklahoma. I'm excited about the possibility of using my skills to help promote and advance the mission of Mid-America Technology Center.
