Board & Administrator

FOR SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

May 2020 Vol. 34, No. 1

Editor: Jeff Stratton

Give board candidates unvarnished truth

Promoting school board service in your community is an important responsibility.

If a citizen approaches you and asks what it takes to serve effectively on a school board, what would you say?

I like the suggestions of former Superintendent Dennis Kelly of Lyons Township (Ill.) High School District 204, because they emphasize commitment and teamwork, two key ingredients to board member effectiveness:

- * Being a board member is like having a major renovation done on your home: It will take twice as long as anticipated, considering time spent in meetings and attending school events, and cost twice as much as planned, considering emotional and physical strain.

- * You have no authority as an individual board member. Your authority and power come as members of a group.

- * If you have a personal agenda, you should reconsider running for the board.

- * You need to make a personal pledge to attend all meetings and read all materials you receive in advance of meetings.

- * While it is helpful to debate all issues before decisions are made, once there is a final decision, you should support it.

- * You will need to keep confidential issues confidential.

- * You should avoid personal attacks, emotional outbursts, and surprising each other and the superintendent at the board table. ■

Identify tasks for board, superintendent

Discussing board and superintendent roles and responsibilities can prevent the board and superintendent team from intrusion into the other's role. When roles are clearly defined, the board and superintendent relationship remains positive.

The West (Texas) Independent School District does this by stating the five essential tasks for both the board and superintendent.

The five most essential tasks of the board are to:

1. Adopt goals and priorities for the district and monitor success in achieving them.
2. Adopt policies that govern the district and review these policies for effectiveness.
3. Hire a superintendent to manage the district and evaluate the superintendent's effectiveness.
4. Adopt an annual budget for the district and set a tax rate appropriate to fund it.

5. Employ and terminate personnel at the recommendation of the superintendent.

The five most essential tasks of the superintendent are to:

1. Accept responsibility for the planning, operation, supervision, and evaluation of the education programs, services, and facilities of the district.
2. Accept responsibility for the assignment and evaluation of personnel and make recommendations for employment and termination of employees.
3. Prepare and submit a proposed budget to the board.
4. Recommend policies to be adopted by the board and develop administrative procedures to implement those policies.
5. Provide leadership for the attainment of student performance. ■

4 agenda problems to avoid

A tightly constructed meeting agenda is one secret to ensuring that board discussion remains on track and meetings are action-oriented. As The Board Doctor, I have reviewed many meeting agendas. Here are four common problems I've identified, along with recommendations to avoid them:

1. Items on the agenda that cause confusion. To make clear what the board is expected to do with an item on the agenda, clearly designate whether the matter is for information only or for board action. Identifying an agenda item with a coding system that states "I" for information or "A" for action solves this problem. The code indicates to board members that for "A" items, they need to be prepared to discuss and act on the issue.

2. Too many agenda items. Be realistic about how much time you should spend on each item during your meeting. It's always better to table items than to rush through a board discussion and make bad decisions. Consider using time limits on each agenda item if rambling discussion is the board's problem.

3. Low-priority items listed at the top of an agenda. The board, or a board committee, should always handle high-priority items first. Otherwise, you risk having to delay or rush work on pressing business.

4. Items added to the agenda at the last minute. Surprises at board meetings are fair to neither board members nor your superintendent. Your board should make it policy that last-minute agenda additions are not allowed. All board members should indicate what they wish to have included on a meeting agenda prior to the agenda being finalized. ■

Board should limit requests for staff work

Hotline call from a Texas board member: "In the past few years, several new board members have been elected who make lots of requests for staff members to perform work for them. The requests for information often are just something one board member needs. Sometimes the staff members will spend several days generating one report for one board member. The requests eat up too much staff time. Do you have any suggestions for how to handle this?"

The Board Doctor's Answer: No board member should treat the district's employees as his personal assistants. To resolve the matter, treat it as a full board issue and not something the board should expect its superintendent to "fix" or handle.

The board should approve a policy that requires full board approval of individual members' requests for staff work. Here's how the policy should work: For a board member to make a request for staff work, the work must take no more than one hour of staff time and must be related to one of the district's strategic goals. If the request meets these criteria, then the board member must present the request to the full board and get a majority to approve the request.

This approach takes the onus off staff, who likely will be uncomfortable when asked by a board member to perform work. It also removes the superintendent from the equation by making board requests for staff work a board issue, which is where the responsibility should lie for these types of decisions.

The Board Doctor's recommendation: When creating a policy on board requests for information, consider these issues: requests for information during a board meeting, requests for information outside of board meetings, requests for information related to the board meeting agenda, program-specific requests, and how responses from staff will be disseminated to the board. ■

Ensure board consensus when goals change

As the board monitors performance on the district's strategic goals, you may find that circumstances have changed, and goals must be modified. When that occurs, it's important that the full board support and approve changes to the strategic plan.

To achieve board consensus on changes to goals, board members should answer the following questions:

Strategic Plan Criteria

Goal Statement:

1. Does the goal meet the district's mission?
2. Is the goal detailed sufficiently?
3. Does the goal make sense?
4. Is the goal achievable considering district resources?
5. What additional information do you need?
6. Additional comments? ■

BCMS Board Report

Middle School Update

- Educational Plans wrap up this week. Once students have completed the enrichment activities given on May 6th, they are done with their semester. (We hope to see everyone in person in the fall). We are looking at ways to get feedback from our community on the response and what we can do to improve if we have interruptions in learning this fall.
- Middle School Awards Night will not take place; however, a slide show has been created to honor the students that earned our academic and athletic awards. That video will be emailed to students, parents, and posted to district social media. Additionally, an 8th grade honor video was created as well. Special thanks to Mrs. Ashley Pelster for her hard work on these projects.
 - 27 Middle School students earned distinction for making Honor Roll 3 quarters in a row!
 - The following 8th graders earned the President's Excellence Award (to earn this award, they had to score in the top 85%, nationally, in Reading or Math on the MAP assessment. They also had to earn a 93% or higher grade point average for the year.
 - Dylan Choat, Luke Curry, James Fogleman, Cory Jochem, Briana Johnson, Bella Meyer, Myranda Nelson, Natalie Pelster, Nyla Redler, Ben Riley, & Natalie Schrad.
- Student Check-In is set for May 14th from 10:00 - 7:00 in Albion. Students will return books, laptops, & pay outstanding balances / fines.

Curriculum & District Assessment Update

- ACT has rescheduled its April 4 national test date to June 13 across the U.S. in response to concerns about the spread of the coronavirus. All students registered for the April 4 test received an email from ACT informing them of the postponement and instructions for free rescheduling to June 13 or a future national test date. The next ACT national test dates are June 13 and July 18.
- Language Arts is the next curricular area in the adoption cycle. Mrs. Bird has already visited with NDE to gather recommendations. We have requested samples and are beginning the process of adoption which will conclude in March of 2021.
- Fall MAP testing will take place earlier than normal. It will be happening very shortly after school is in session to ensure we get the data we need to make curricular decisions.

I. Senior Graduation - June 28th or July 26th - 2 pm

II. Cardinal Time Schedule - Starting August 2020

Cardinal Time and ISDF – “Increase Success, Decrease Failure”

There are 3 purposes of Cardinal Time:

- 1.) Cardinal Time is used to provide academic support for every student. Each teacher is assigned a group of students, each teacher assigned to a Cardinal Time will serve as an academic advisor for their students. Academic advisors will check grades, provide guidance, and assist in the overall success for each of their students. Academic advisors will help students develop a plan and establish goals for college and career as they transition through their secondary education into post-secondary.
- 2.) Cardinal Time is used for clubs and activity meetings. These meetings support the overall success of our school clubs/activities programs. These activities bring pride to our community and impact the overall success of supporting a positive school culture.
- 3.) Cardinal Time is used to recognize the achievements of our students and develop positive teacher-student and student-student relationships.

Other considerations:

Early Dismissals for Sports/Activities:

Fall Sports Season - 2019:

Softball - 5 Early Dismissals on TH/F = 100 minutes

XC - 6 Early Dismissals on TH/F = 120 minutes

VB - 2 Early Dismissals on TH/F = 40 minutes

New Times Line Up with Middle School Schedule

Cardinal Time on Thursdays and Fridays creates another layer of support in the ICU philosophy

Cardinal Time Schedule:

Mondays

Every student (9-12) reports to his or her Cardinal time teacher. On Mondays, teachers will complete grade checks with ALL their CT students. No other club/activity meetings are held on Mondays. Every other Monday is Advisory.

Tuesdays

These days are set aside for club/activity meetings. Teachers will use the Cardinal Time calendar to schedule their club/activity meetings. All other students are required to be with their Cardinal time teacher.

Thursday, Friday - ISDF

Thursday's and Friday's are set aside for teachers to request students to meet with them to complete late work or work on material for remediation. A google spreadsheet is utilized by teachers to request students for Cardinal time on Thursdays and Fridays. At the beginning of the period, all students will report to their Cardinal Time teacher first then be sent to the requesting teacher. For the first two weeks of each quarter, students not requested for ISDF time are required to remain with their Cardinal Time teacher.

Students who are not on the ISDF request list weeks 3-9 of each quarter are allowed to leave school at 3:10. Students do not have to leave but they must remain with their Cardinal Time teacher if they choose to stay. Students who choose to leave cannot be in the school unsupervised, are only allowed in the trainer's room by request (electronic form) or locker room with a coach present.

Clubs/Organizations/Sports may have meetings on Thursday, however students on the ISDF request list are not allowed to attend the activity meeting and must meet with the requesting teacher.

First Two Weeks of the quarter

During the first two weeks of the quarter all students will report to their Cardinal Time. The first two weeks of each semester will be used for academic advising and relationship building activities.
