RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE SEGUIN INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

WHEREAS, the Seguin Independent School District (“Seguin ISD” or “the District”)’s current election system consists of seven single-member trustee districts; and

WHEREAS, Texas Education Code § 11.052(i) provides that the District must re-evaluate its single-member trustee districts following the availability of the most current Decennial Census; and

WHEREAS, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and Texas Education Code § 11.052(i) require that, based on the current Decennial Census data, if the total population residing in Seguin ISD’s most populous single-member district exceeds the total population residing in its least populous single-member district by a deviation of ten percent or more, the District must revise the boundaries of its single-member trustee districts to bring the deviation under ten percent;

WHEREAS, the total population of Seguin ISD's single-member trustee District 4 exceeds the total population of single-member trustee District 6 by a deviation of 64.3% based on the Federal Census of 2020;

WHEREAS, the Seguin ISD Board of Trustees appointed a Redistricting Advisory Committee consisting of the following members, representing a diverse cross-section of the Seguin ISD community: Benito Amador, Denise Crettenden, Linda Duncan, Alejandro R. Guerra, Carl Jenkins, Glenda R. Moreno, Cinde Thomas-Jimenez;

WHEREAS, the Seguin Independent School District has received a recommendation from the Redistricting Advisory Committee regarding its redistricting recommendation;

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees will adopt the recommendation of the Redistricting Advisory Committee to modify the District’s single-member district boundaries as set out in “Plan 3” changing the boundary between trustee District 7 and trustee District 4, and believes this plan will best serve the voters of the District and the voters of each single-member district;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that changes set out herein are adopted as follows:

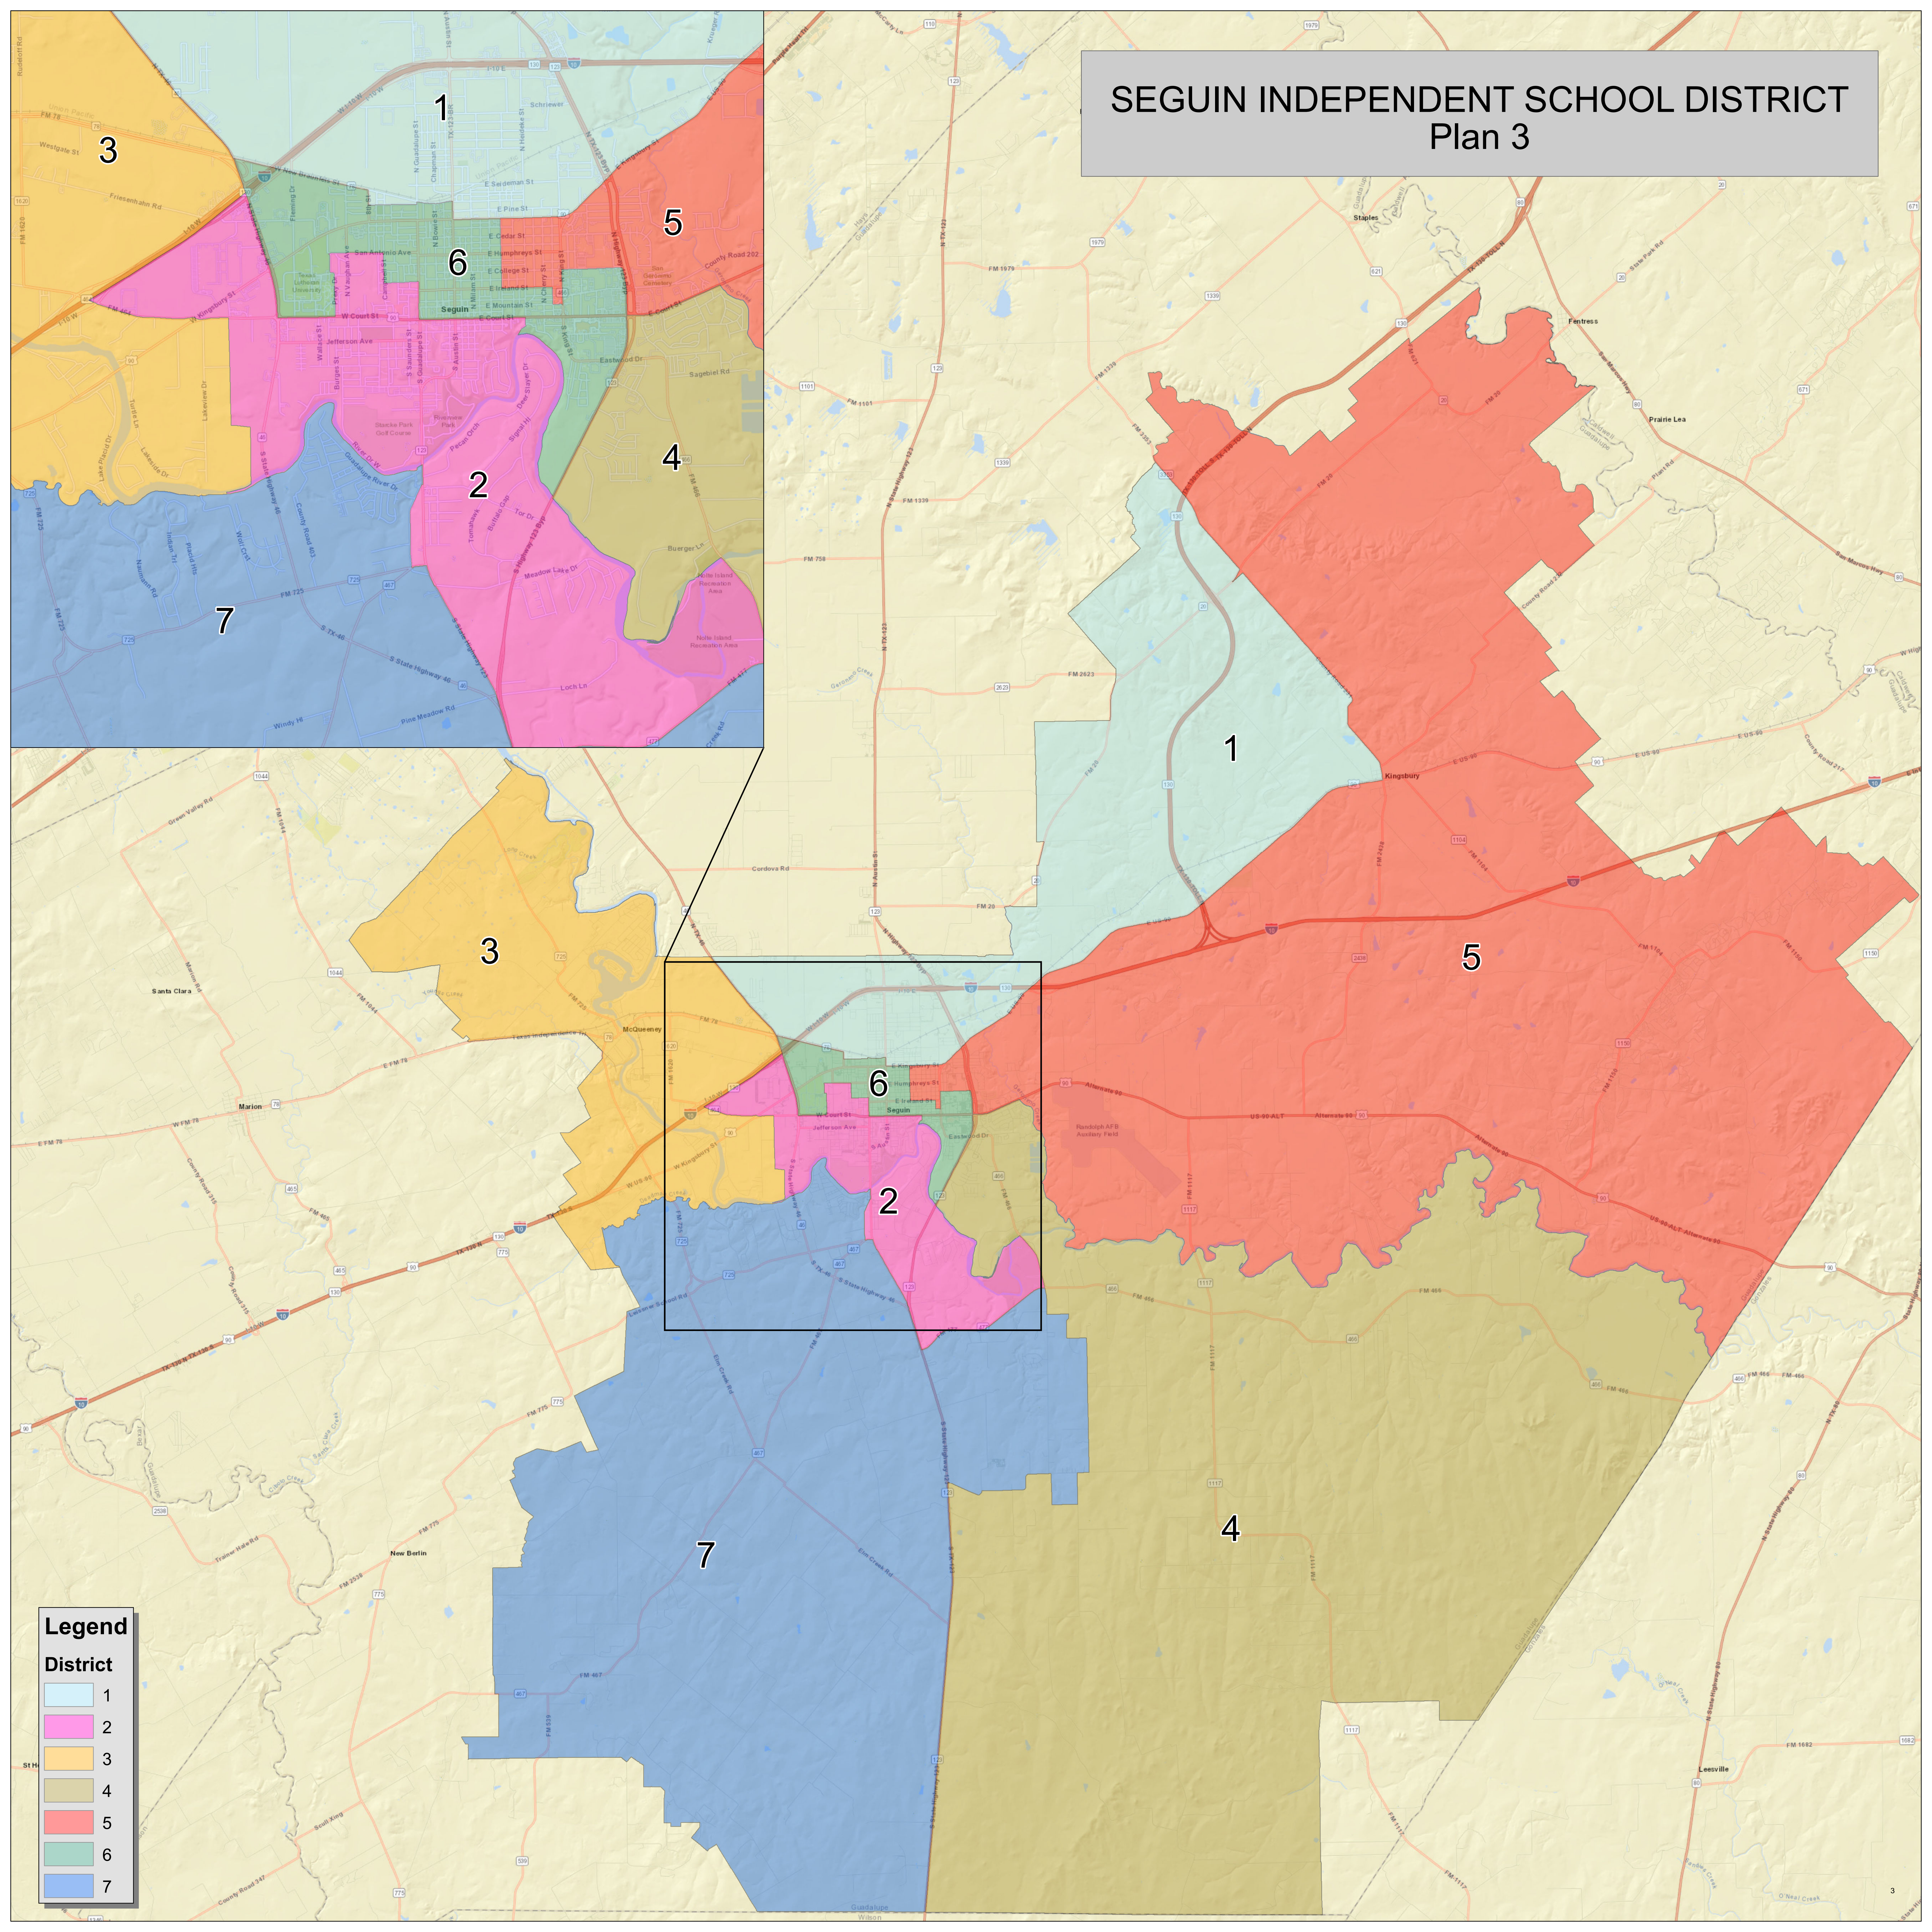

1. The boundaries of the seven single-member trustee election districts are hereby re-drawn as shown in the maps for Plan 3 included in the recommendation of the Redistricting Advisory Committee attached hereto.
2. The boundaries set out in Plan 3 will be submitted to the Guadalupe County Election officials for use in future Trustee elections on a staggered basis, coinciding with the conclusion of Trustee terms according to the schedule set forth in Board policy BBB (Local).

Resolved this 31st day of May, 2022.

Cinde Thomas-Jimenez
Seguin ISD Board President

Glenda Moreno
