Reference/Background Information

Before the Meeting

- Confirm whether the planned subject matter is eligible for a closed session under Nebraska law. (e.g., superintendent or board president consultation with legal counsel).
- Prepare a brief summary of the topic to be cited in the motion.

Identify Lawful Purpose(s) for Closed Session

- Under the Nebraska Open Meetings Act, a public body (such as a school board) may convene in closed (executive) session only for specific, lawful purposes. Closed/Executive Session must be clearly necessary to ensure:
 - protection of the public interest; or
 - prevention of needless injury to the reputation of an individual and if such an individual has not requested a public meeting.
- Common reasons include:
 - Strategy sessions with respect to litigation, real estate purchases, pending or imminent.
 - Discussion regarding collective bargaining negotiations.
 - Discussion regarding the evaluation or job performance of a staff member (like the Board evaluation of the Superintendent), or for the prevention of needless injury to an individual's reputation (if that individual has not requested an open meeting).
 - Discussion concerning security personnel or devices.

Make a Proper Motion in Open Session

- Before moving into a closed session, a board member must make a motion in open session. The motion should include:
 - Specific Subject Matter – A brief description of the topic to be discussed (e.g., “to discuss litigation strategy regarding the [XYZ] lawsuit,” “to discuss negotiations with the local teachers’ association,” etc.) and
 - Stated Purpose – A statement of which section of the Nebraska Open Meetings Act applies (e.g., “to prevent needless injury to the reputation of a staff member” if evaluating job performance).
 - Example: “I move to go into closed session to discuss negotiations (subject matter) for the protection of the public’s interest (reason necessitating the closed session).” “I move to go into closed session to discuss a performance evaluation to protect the reputation of an individual and that individual has been notified and has not requested a public meeting.”

Vote on the Motion (In Open Session)

- Once the motion is made, the board president (or presiding officer) must call for a vote in open session.
- A majority of board members present must vote in favor of the motion for the board to legally enter closed session.

- The vote must be recorded in the meeting minutes.
- If the motion to close passes, the presiding officer shall restate for the record the limitation of the subject matter of the closed session immediately and prior to moving into closed session.
- Make a note of the time the board entered closed session (Board meeting minutes must include the entire motion, the vote of each member, time in which the closed session started and ended.)

Conduct the Closed Session Properly

- Board Members will close/lock any laptops and will leave their cell phones and any other media or recording devices at South Campus.
- The Board will move to another location to conduct closed sessions (typically the school library in the elementary school).
- Admit Only Necessary Individuals: During the closed session, typically, the board members, required staff (e.g., superintendent, board secretary), legal counsel, or others with relevant input may remain present. Anyone not necessary for the closed-session discussion is welcome to remain at South Campus until the board returns to open session.
- Discuss Only the Announced Topic: The board must limit the discussion strictly to the purpose(s) identified in the motion. Venturing into unrelated topics violates the Open Meetings Act.
- No Formal Action: The board cannot take final action (e.g., vote to approve a policy) during the closed session. Any vote or final decision must be conducted in open session.
- If, during the closed session, a member believes the discussion has strayed away from the reason or motion for the closed session, the board member may challenge the continuation of the closed session. If the board member believes the discussion is inappropriate, next steps:
 - If a challenge is made, the board will return to open session, note the time, and vote in public.
 - If a majority of the board members vote against the challenge to terminate [i.e., motion failed], the board will return to the closed session referencing the original motion to enter closed session, note the time, and continue.
 - If the challenge is made, it shall be reflected in the minutes, and it will list how each member voted.
 - If a challenge is made by a member and the board votes against it, the member making the motion should consider leaving the meeting if he/she believes the board is discussing material that is not relevant to the reason for the closed session. The board member may also return to the closed session.

Return to Open Session and Record in Minutes

- When the board finishes its closed-session discussion:
 - Reconvene in Open Session: The board president (or presiding officer) announces the end of the closed session, restates the limitations of the closed session, and reconvenes the open meeting.
 - Record the Time: The start and end times of the closed session must be noted in the minutes.

Document Compliance:

- The minutes should reflect:
 - The motion to go into closed session, including who made and seconded it.
 - The vote (roll call or otherwise) on the motion.
 - The statutory reason for the closed session.
 - The start time of the closed session and the end time when the board returned to open session.

Formal Action:

- If any formal action (e.g., a decision or vote) results from the closed-session discussion, that action must be taken in the open session so that it is publicly recorded.
