1. Superintendent's Report

As part of the strategic plan, administrators have been exploring the possibility of continuing to expand the district's preschool programming to accommodate 18 additional students. Next, Superintendent Cooper advised board members that the attendance policy at GHS will be updated in the 2021-22 student handbook. Board action will not be required. Additionally, the administrative team is considering modifications to the grading scale. Preparations are being made for the preschool/kindergarten expo, junior high and high school orientations and other end of the year activities as well as summer school. The 2021-22 school calendar is in draft, and should be ready for board review by the March board meeting.
