I. Discussion Items

1. Finance Report: See attached report

2. January-February Professional Development Programs:

January 12: David Weber and VJ Smith: Thank you for your participation in the workshops on January 12 and special thank you to Joy and anyone else involved in providing the great breakfast.

January 29-30: Kevin Honeycutt: We will need to consider grab-n-go for both breakfast and lunch on January 29th as the east gym will be used for workshops all day.

February 3: APL for SCHS and selected teachers/administrators from the other buildings. The workshops will run from 8:00 AM to 3:45 PM. We will need rolls/coffee in the morning, lunch, and cookies in the afternoon for 60 staff members involved in the workshop.

3. 2015-16 School Calendar: We have provided the first draft of the 2015-16 calendar with corresponding dates. Recommended changes will be made to that calendar to address problems with the current calendar or changes because of the way dates fall on the new calendar.

4. Strategic Planning Process: We will begin the final planning phase of the 2015 strategic planning process this month. Dr. Hoelsing will present at the Senior Center on January 26th, at Cargill on January 27th, and host a community leaders retreat on February 2nd. The board committee will meet following these meetings and present our recommended priorities to the board for their approval on February 7th.

5. Requisition/Inventory: The ESU Coop purchasing site will open on February 2nd. All ESU orders are due on April 1st. The requisitions for items outside of the Coop Purchase will be done on the filemaker system again this year. Orders completed on the filemaker system are due on May 1st. Inventory updates are due upon checkout at the end of the school year.

6. 2015-16 Contracts: The board of education approved the certificated staff master agreement and the superintendent's contract on Monday, January 12th. The finance committee is working on the other administrators, directors, and coordinators for approval at their meeting on February 9th. Following that meeting, the finance committee will begin working on support staff salaries and contracts. Support staff contracts will be finalized at the board meeting on May 11th.

7. Board Committees:
